

FLORISAR ANNEXED TENNESSEE DERBY.

H. J. Scoggan's Colt Galloped Over F. W. Brode and the Conqueror at Memphis.

RACE RUN ON A MUDDY TRACK.

J. C. Cain's Thrive, Who Went to the Post Favorite, Finished Fourth—Van Dusen Rode the Winner.

Memphis, Tenn., April 16.—Under threatening skies and on a muddy track, H. J. Scoggan's colt Florisar, running from Florida, won the rich Tennessee Derby, a mile and an eighth, by a gait of two lengths over the winner, who was in two minutes and gained time on a track heavy in mud and slush.

More than 30,000 people visited the Mount Morris Park to see the derby and five other well-filled races contested. The derby was the fourth race on the card. In the ring J. C. Cain's Top Gallant colt Thrive was held a slight favorite over F. W. Brode, their prices being $3 and 2 to 1 respectively.

The Conqueror was next best in the ring, followed by Van Dusen and the others.

Florisar, owned by James G. Sherman of Flushing, N. Y., cost $12,000, and is a half brother to Wenders and Tivoli, and a son of Alexander Spring Starling, by Sir Paul Martin, dark colt by Vandal.
